

Advancing and Promoting the Rights of People with Cognitive Disabilities to Technology and Information Access in Philadelphia

Challenges	Partners	Solutions
Highest rate of deep poverty among largest cities in US Second worst rate of inclusion of students with disabilities Lack of access to internet, limited technology Limited awareness of technology access goals as part of Secondary Transition	 Philadelphia Transition Council  Pennsylvania DEPARTMENT OF LABOR & INDUSTRY OFFICE OF VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION  Pennsylvania DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION  Bureau of Special Education Pennsylvania Training and Technical Assistance Network  SAP  CJ COLEMAN INSTITUTE Educators Students Families Self Advocates	School mini grants for activities supporting Declaration principles Trainings and Webinars on technology and information access Self Advocacy engagement Youth Leadership Forum Advocacy and Education with Legislators

Advancing and Promoting the Rights of People with Cognitive Disabilities to Technology and Information Access in Philadelphia

